

The Eudora Welty Foundation

2014 National Advisory Board

Alyce Alston, Former president, Home & Garden and Health & Wellness, The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.; former CEO of Debeers North America, Austin, Texas

Nancy Bierman, Dedicated community leader and volunteer for many cultural and civic endeavors in Dallas, Texas

Mary Chapin Carpenter, Grammy Award-winning pop/country singer and song writer, Batesville, Virginia

Thad Cochran, United States Senator, Washington, D.C.

William Dunlap, award-winning artist, recipient of an Emmy for his work as a visual arts commentator, McLean, Virginia

Eric Etheridge, Photographer/author; Former editor for Rolling Stone, the New York Observer, and Harper's; website designer for the New York Times and Microsoft; photographer/author of Breach of Peace: Portraits of the 1961 Freedom Riders, New York, New York

Ruff Fant, Founder and Chairman of TowPath Partners, a specialty finance company, and its predecessor Galway Partners; former adjunct professor, Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D. C.

Morgan Freeman, one of the most highly regarded talents in the film industry, Academy Award winner, recipient of three Obie awards and a Golden Globe award, Charleston, Mississippi

John Grisham, best-selling novelist, Charlottesville, Virginia

Sam Haskell, President of Magnolia Hill Consultants, entertainment industry leader, former Worldwide Head of Television for The William Morris Agency, Inc., Oxford, Mississippi

Dan Jordan, historian, retired director of Monticello, vice-chair of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, President Emeritus of the Thomas Jefferson Foundation, Charlottesville, Virginia

Mary Lynn Kotz, journalist and author/biographer whose subjects have ranged from civil rights to women's rights to art, including Upstairs at the White House and Rauschenberg: Art and Life, Broad Run, Virginia

Jim Lehrer, author and former host of PBS The News Hour with Jim Lehrer, Arlington, Virginia

Margaret McMullan, Award-winning novelist and writer of short stories and essays; Melvin M. Peterson Endowed Chair in Literature, University of Evansville, Evansville, Indiana

Rob McQuilkin, Welty's literary agent, Lippincott Massie McQuilkin, New York, New York

Roger Mudd, retired host of The History Channel, for many years a television anchor and correspondent, McLean, Virginia

Andrea Overby, member, Belmont University Board of Trustees, and former chair, Mississippi University for Women Board of Trustees, Brentwood, Tennessee

Charles L. Overby, former Chairman, CEO and president/ Freedom Forum and Diversity Institute and CEO/Newseum, Washington, D.C.

Randall Pinkston New York-based correspondent for the CBS Evening News and other network broadcasts; recipient of three national Emmy awards, Teaneck, New Jersey

Clyda Rent, Rent Consulting Group, former president of Mississippi University for Women (MUW), where she initiated the Welty Symposium, Charlotte, North Carolina

Tim Seldes, Eudora Welty's former agent at Russell & Volkening, New York, New York

Susan Richards Shreve, award-winning author, former president of the PEN/Faulkner Foundation, Washington, D.C.

Lee Smith Award-winning author of novels and short stories, charter member of Fellowship of Southern Writers, recipient of American Academy of Arts and Letters Award in Literature, Hillsborough, North Carolina

Elizabeth Spencer, Award-winning author of novels and short stories, charter member of Fellowship of Southern Writers, member of American Academy of Arts and Letters, PEN /Malamud Award for Short Fiction, Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Clifton Taulbert, Pulitzer Prize nominated author, founder of The Building Community Institute, Tulsa, Oklahoma

Alfred Uhry, award-winning playwright, the recipient of both a Pulitzer Prize and an Academy Award for Driving Miss Daisy, adapted Welty's The Robber Bridegroom for Broadway, New York, New York

Gayle Wicker, literacy advocate, served as the co-chair and chair of the Reading Is Fundamental Gift of Reading Gala, Coordinator of Student Services at the University of Mississippi-Tupelo, community volunteer, Tupelo, Mississippi